February Zealant Pastor Article

By the time you get this Zealant, I will have preached a sermon on 1 Corinthians 12: 12-31. Doesn't mean it's any less important now. Matter of fact, as I write this article, I haven't yet finished said sermon. Oh, I've completed quite a bit of the exegetical work needed. I've looked at the original language (Greek); and I have read a few commentaries regarding what St. Paul said to the Corinthians in that letter.

But the sermon will contain wording like, "we all belong to the one body of Christ..." We do. As Paul says,

"For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit. For the body does not consist of one member but of many." (1 Co 12:12–14).

And it's that way with this congregation. Zion is ONE body; though made up of many members. Paul also says, "If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many parts, yet one body." (1 Co 12:19–20). And then Paul finishes up this Epistle with these words,

“Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? But earnestly desire the higher gifts.

And I will show you a still more excellent way.” (1 Co 12:27–31).

Anyone besides me see the obvious connection to what the good St. Paul is saying being compared to our church here at Zion??? One of the commentaries I read said that even the “weakest part is invaluable”! Just because you’re too old to get up and scrape the eaves of the church needing paint doesn’t mean you still don’t have something “valuable” to contribute to the whole congregation! Even though she might only be in high school, doesn’t mean she doesn’t have anything to contribute of value to the way this or that in the church ought to be!

Paul gives the illustrations of various body parts complaining about not being another. Like, the eye isn’t an ear so it’s no good. Or, the foot saying if it’s not a hand it can’t belong to the body. WRONG! All parts, ALL members contribute to the body of this congregation!

My favorite verses of Paul’s in this reading come in verses 18 – 20: “But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many parts, yet one body.” Did you hear that? It is GOD who has arranged all the members...!!! Not me the pastor. Not the Church Council or the groups of ladies or the youth or even the parents. It is GOD who has called each of us to be an essential part of this body of Christ – this church.

So, then who excludes who from attending church? Who is it then who decides who gets to do what or serve here or work on that? Accordingly, it is God who calls one to any position, place, job, office, or any capacity within the church. That means should you have this little, maybe subliminal voice in the very back of your mind that you ought to be helping with things at church (let alone even attending church services!), it’s God Himself speaking and calling you to do things. These are those good works the Holy Spirit “calls, gathers, and enlightens” us to do in the body of Christ.

Are all called to be missionaries? No, they're not. Are all called to speak out publicly the salvation won by Christ for the whole world? No. No everyone isn't. But many do have capabilities, abilities, and wherewithal to contribute something to Christ's church!

We each have been made holy by the blood of Jesus. We have each received God's solemn promise of heaven – forever and ever! We have each (those who have been baptized, Catechized and Confirmed!) given our vow to adhere and support the faith, even unto death (!) rather than fall away from it. So why then do not our pews swell to overflowing on Sundays? Why then do our committees and council have despicable response to support the church in all her endeavors?

A few days before writing this article, the State of New York passed a new law enabling abortions anytime up to the moment of birth. How on earth did they succeed in doing this most horrible feat of murder to the least capable of defending themselves? Because time has come when too many calling themselves Christian sit idly by allowing immoral and devilish acts go by without guidance from God almighty. The body of Christ... the hands, the ears, the feet, and all its members are not working as effectively as God has so created them to work. Look again at what St. Peter says about you and who you are now:

“But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.” (1 Peter 2:9–10).

It's not a 'soap-box' folks. It's real life in the Church of Jesus Christ.

I pray ever so intensely that I see you in church. Soon.

Unfinished/Old Business: None

New Business:

Jill Coons thanked Jeremy Grant for the list of needs he provided and for the work that has been completed.

Jill Coons thanked Jerry Lahrman for the funds that he provides through the garage sales held at the church, so we are able to do the repairs needed to the church.

Jerry Lahrman stated the original and continued intention of the garage sales is to fund projects and repairs for the church.

Some discussion about the continuation of the garage sale; this will be discussed further in the Church Council meeting and will be brought to the voter's assembly of Zion in the near future.

Scott Woodhouse laid out his hopes and plans for transparency and his intention to meet with all boards and committees in order to gain a better understand what each does and to try to reach out and help revitalize some committees to get more people involved.

As a reminder, each committee and board has a file in the church secretary's office. Please keep it organized, up to date and purge any records no longer needed. This is a great source for information.

With no further business, Joyce Reidt made a motion to adjourn. Judy Gilbert seconded. The motion passed.

Pastor closed with the benediction.

Respectfully submitted,
Katherine (Katie) Rittner, Recording Secretary

If you find yourself ...periodically ... looking for great, short reads to ... digest..., your church library has the genuine ... (wait for it...) article.

There are a number of magazines available in the library for your perusal. The Concordian (Concordia Wisconsin), Arbor Light (Concordia, Ann Arbor), Concordia Seminary (Concordia, St. Louis), and For the Life of the World (Concordia, Fort Wayne) all provide a look at the faculty, students, and events happening at your LCMS Seminaries and universities. Might I suggest Dr. Peter J. Scaer's article "Formed in Christ for Public and Witness Service" (For the Life of the World Summer18)? In the article, Dr. Scaer helps the Lutheran reader to consider the current social climate and its potential impacts on the Church. All four magazines are also available at no cost online.

Lutherans Engage showcases evangelization efforts, from Belize, to Texas, to right in our own Columbia City! Open the Fall18 edition for "Finding Forgiveness," to see the local efforts of your Lutheran community working with the Whitley County jail ministry (and perhaps to see a familiar face or two). Lutherans Engage is also available at no cost at <https://engage.lcms.org>. Other periodicals of note include The Lutheran Witness, The Lutheran Journal, and Lutheran's Woman's Quarterly (the publication of the LWML that includes Bible studies). No subscription is required to check them out of your library!
