We've all heard that stewardship is giving to the church of our time, talents, and treasure. This alliterative trinity helps us see that giving is not just about money, but about our whole lives. For God has given us everything we have and enjoy as we confess in the meaning to the First Article of the Apostle's Creed. And what we confess first among those is that God gives us "our body and soul, our eyes, ears, and all our members, our reason and all our senses." Only then do we confess that he gives us material things. Thus the time, talents, and treasure the Holy Trinity places before our eyes is the fact that we're to give something of all of these things toward the mission of the church in thanksgiving for what God has provided. For everything we have and indeed everything we are comes from God's fatherly divine goodness and mercy.

The problem is, we replace one little word with another little word—when we replace the word and with the word or. When speaking of Stewardship, it's always written with the and, but when we read it, we read it with the or. Thus, this quite helpful trinity, which extolled that everything that we have and are is a gift from God, and which is to be pressed into the service of God in His church, turns into a trinity that we think we can pick and choose which of the trinity we use into the service of God. The giving of our time, talents, and treasure turns into the giving of our time, talents, or treasure. Uughh.

Then... the questions arise: Can we give of our time and talents instead of our treasures? Or perhaps it is the other way around: Can we give our treasure and not of our time and our talents? How about, can I get away with just giving of my time? How about just loaning the church my talents...just this one time? Isn't 'stewardship' just pastor trying to fill the offering plate? And just how much are we "supposed" to give – of our time? Our talents? Our treasure?

These are all the wrong questions. The right question is, can we give of our time and our talents in addition to our treasure? Yes, indeed, we are called to give of all three! We're not supposed to pick and choose one or the other. What's the right way to consider 'Stewardship'? The things that God gives us are not to be pitted against one another. They are all given to us – our time, talents, and our treasures

- and we are to press them all into God's service for the benefit of His church and our neighbors in need.

Thus we give all three. We give our treasure in the form of a generous, first-fruits, proportion of our income. We give of our time in generosity for the benefit of Christ's holy church. We give of our talents in the same manner: we sing in a choir, we help on a committee, we volunteer to help decorate, we help visit shut ins... Since God gave us all these things, we are called to give generously of all these things in faith toward Him and in fervent love to our neighbors.

For God has provided all these things to us. Out of His fatherly, divine goodness and mercy, He gives us each time, talents, AND treasures as a means to bless those around us. We serve our neighbors with these things, blessing them with the blessings in which God has blessed us. We give of our time, talents, and treasures to our families, our society, and to our church, our local congregations. And we do this because we know that we are not our own. Rather, we belong to God. We have been bought with a price—with the holy precious blood and innocent suffering and death of our Lord Jesus Christ. He gave everything—His time, His talents, and His treasure,—to have us as His own and to live under Him in His kingdom and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence and blessedness. We have these things as gifts and blessings from God. Let us then press them all into service for the sake of His love—time, talents, and treasures together.

See you in church, soon!

Pastor Phil Rittner

p.s. I share these notes on Stewardship for our Zealant newsletter, because, quite frankly, we have no one serving on our Board of Stewardship. We haven't since I've been here. Perhaps after prayer and careful meditation – someone from among the ranks would see that we do need a committee to help the saints of Zion Lutheran Church in Columbia City with Stewardship...
