Pastor's Corner

Quite a few years ago, a president of these United States made a famous statement: “Ask not what your country can do for you, but what can you do for your country.” (John F. Kennedy's Inaugural Address, January 20, 1961.) Here in the Church, Jesus has told us in Holy Scripture that the Ten Commandments are summed up as: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind...and a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” (Matthew 22:37-39, ESV) Where are we today?

The focus seemingly has turned 180 degrees and pointed toward: me. How am I doing? What am I worth? Am I happy? Am I feeling good? Am I doing what makes me happy? What about ME????

The word ‘commitment’ has too taken on new meanings today. Generations have come and gone when it was beloved to care for our country – so much so that one would fight for this country. Oh, many still do and even some of our youth are growing up learning and holding these ideals close to their heart. But not so much. The trend these days is what can the government do for you to help you along? And, the same is within the Church: it’s what I get from Church that matters. The commitment has shifted from individual responsibility to the collective responsibility of the organization to care for the individual.

Why then do we bother having the church? This church, Zion Lutheran Church? Case in point: your Confirmation. The Rite of Confirmation has for many years contained the questions: “Do you intend to live according to the Word of God, and in faith, word, and deed to remain true to God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, even to death? Do you intend to continue steadfast in this confession and Church and to suffer all, even death, rather than falling away from it?” To which your answer would have been to both questions: “I do, by the grace of God.”

Our faith is an active thing. Much like our responsibilities to being an American citizen, our goal should be one of serving others. Our plan should be one of ensuring others are cared for enough to hear the love God has for them in His Son Jesus Christ. You and I have been saved from sin, death, and the devil. Then what? Being a Christian is being active. Serving others as we want to be served. The gap has grown considerably large whereas we care much for the very young, those who cannot care for themselves, and then we care for those in the very late, last stages of life...nearing death. What about those in between? That’s you and I. That’s your neighbor. That’s anyone else who walks the face of this earth. Are these folks then left to fend for themselves in this life of misery, destruction and death?

This is why we are undergoing Revitalization. Matter of fact, the main focus of the entire Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod Mission for last month was Evangelism and Revitalization: “...we highlight the ministries of the LCMS Office of National Mission (ONM), especially domestic mission, including church-planting and revitalization. We have opportunities for immense growth and outreach by delivering the Gospel to people of diverse backgrounds and to those misled by a post-modern culture. Through revitalization, we can encourage and reinvigorate the faithful.”

Have no doubt the Church is here for you in your needs as poor, miserable sinners. Have no doubt that the Church exists here in Columbia City to distribute the Means of Grace – God's Holy Word and His Sacraments. We come to enrich and enliven our faith. We come to hear God's Word and receive His Sacraments. We come to hear Him forgive us our sins. And, indeed we come for the fellowship! But, could I ask it this way: Ask not what can your church do for you, but what can you do for the church”?

Other Business—We need to revise our Board of Education Constitution. Meeting closed with Pastor gave the Benediction. Joyce Reidt submitted the report.

Board of Outreach:

Peg Brooke reporting. Discussion on purchase of the AED unit how to pay for it. As we open our facility to the community such as Red Cross, voting, etc. It would be a very practical item to have at Zion. (A community dinner was one suggestion).

Altar Guild

The Mary Martha Altar Guild met on Saturday, February 7, 2015. The Pastor read a reading out of Isaiah. The minutes from the November 16th meeting were read and approved. The minutes will be submitted to Cheryl for the Zealant.

Old Business

The rod that holds our Mission Statement is up and looks very nice. Altar Guild room is almost finished. Still need to put paper down to protect the shelves from stains and would like a small light to help with seeing the oil level in the candles.

The need for a fair linen will be posted in the Zealant. Any donation can be marked on the offering envelope as such. The approximate price is $200.00-$250.00.

It was decided that the wrought iron stand will be put in the “Lutheran Reporter” for any church home that needs one.

New Business

Need to give a copy of our “Constitution of the Altar Guild” to the Pastor. He will then see that it gets put in the Church’s Constitution.

Marty made a plastic cover for us to use under the corporal to protect the fair linen from stains. This will be hanging with the corporal in the closet. Also, it was suggested that we get a silicone pad to put down on the counter as to protect the counter top from stains as we prepare the Lord’s Supper and the Altar candles.

Pastor Phil reported no weddings or funerals at this time. He also reported that he has palms for Ash Wednesday service. Parament Colors – Feb 15th is Transformation Sunday, white and Ash Wed will be purple. Stays purple through Maundy Thursday.

During service on Maundy Thursday the Altar will be stripped.

Good Friday is black, with crucifix on the Altar. When bringing the crucifix in be sure to wear gloves and hold at the base and bottom to prevent any damage to the cross.

Flower requests for Easter Sunday will be in the March Zealant and future bulletins.

Pastor Phil closed with the Benediction.

Faithfully submitted, Betty Wilkinson
